

If you share at least seven of the nine principles, then you are just like over a million other 9.12<sup>ers</sup> who believe that Americans can take care of Americans best.

Let's get back to our roots.

Our founders clearly laid out the order of responsibility in solving social problems:

1. Personal responsibility above all else.
2. Family cares for family.
3. Community rallies around its neighbors.
4. County rallies its collective communities.
5. State supports its communities, counties and people.
6. National government maintains security, justice, and good order in support of the states and the people.
